Course Description:

EL 101 and EL 102 are designed as a general introduction to English Literature. EL 101 covers the Early and Middle English periods, the English Renaissance, and the first half of the 17th Century up to the Restoration (1660). EL 102 continues the survey from the Restoration to the present, covering the Augustan Age, the Romantics, the Victorian Age, and the 20th Century.

The courses are offered in the form of introductory lectures for each literary period followed by the reading and discussion of individual texts. Each course is independent and EL 101 is not a prerequisite for EL 102.

Course Structure and Requirements:

- Attendance is required. You can miss four classes (including the PS hours) for each course. Please make sure that you also attend the PS hours, which are marked on the syllabus.
- You must read the assigned texts carefully and analyze their language before coming to class to be able to follow the lectures and discussions. Your active participation is essential to maintain a productive learning environment.
- There will be one midterm and one final exam, and students are required to take both. The midterm will be around Week 7/8. The final will focus mostly on the second half of the syllabus. Students who fail to meet the attendance requirement will not be admitted to the final exam. There will be two/three (announced) reading quizzes as well, and no makeup for quizzes unless you have a medical certificate.
- The Course Textbook (marked CT below) and William Shakespeare's Othello will be available at the library (photocopy shop). I may share additional readings on Moodle.
- The reading list or schedule (PS hours etc.) may change with prior notice depending on the circumstances and our in-class pace.

Class Policies:

• Adapting from J.R.R. Tolkien, "One word to rule us all: respect."

- Respect is about following the classroom etiquette and contributing to not only a productive but also a safe and positive learning environment. We must listen to each other attentively even though we disagree at times.
- We must also maintain clear and transparent communication: I will make sure that I respond to your emails as soon as I can, but only within reasonable working hours. Please ask/ tell me whenever you have any issues/concerns rather than worry over hearsay. We can always arrange office hours.
- If you are a student with learning or other disabilities (or any other issues), please inform me in person or via email during the first week of the class so that necessary arrangements can be made.

Avoiding Plagiarism:

- For written assignments, you must follow the MLA (Modern Language Association) guidelines for formatting and citation. You can access the latest edition here: https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research and citation/mla style/mla formatting and style guide.html. All sources must be properly cited; otherwise, you are committing plagiarism, that is, presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were your own. Not only direct quotations and facts but also paraphrases of ideas must be properly documented. If you have any doubts about whether/how you should cite a source, please ask me BEFORE you submit your work.
- Plagiarism also includes submitting papers or work you have used for other courses (your own or others'), buying papers online or having others write papers for you: no such work will be accepted. Any instance of academic dishonesty will be subject to appropriate sanctions.
